Second Year Students Encounter Multiple Common Challenges

Unaware of Resources

"I wish I knew more about clubs, opportunities, and programs"

Lack of career
certainty

"I wish career services did more to help kids explore career options"

Feelings of Isolation

"...barely made time to hang out with friends and became lonely"

The Education Advisory Board has Identified a National Absence of Second Year Guidance

The Sophomore Gap

	First Year	Second Year	Third Year	Fourth Year
 Campus Support Structures	First-Year Experience programs Residence halls	???	Faculty advisor in academic division	Senior Week Graduate school advice Career center
 Intensive Curricular Engagement	First-year seminars University 101	???	Advanced major courses	Capstone course

-Lack of direction with course planning

-Perceived lack of resources

-Lack of self value

UVA Needs to Better Communicate Resources as Indicated Through Student Survey Responses

Could UVA Better Communicate Existing Advising Resources?

Which resource would you most likely approach to find out more information about getting involved on grounds, planning your major, internship advice, etc.?

The "How To @ UVA" Collab Page Consolidates Resources In One Central Location

The screenshot displays the UVA Collab website interface. At the top, the UVA Collab logo is on the left, and "My Sites" and a user profile for "Joe" are on the right. Below the header, there are navigation tabs for "Home", "2018 MLI Summer Institute", "ULink 2018", and "HowTo@UVA". A yellow banner indicates the site is "Unpublished Site" with a "(Publish Now)" button and a "Help" icon. The main content area is titled "Find your major path" and includes buttons for "Add Content", "Reorder", "Tips", and a settings icon. A "Print view Index of pages" link is also present. On the left, a sidebar menu lists various categories: "Lessons" (with sub-items like "Find your major path", "Plan for the future", "Practicing self-care", "Getting engaged in the community"), "Announcements", "Assignments", "Forums", "Live Online Meetings", "Gradebook Classic", and "Resources". The main content area features a large image of a classroom with students and a teacher. Below the image is a section titled "What-If Reports" with a paragraph and a bulleted list of instructions.

What-If Reports

From the Student Center, students may request a "What-If Report".

- It allows you to see the requirements for a major/minor/concentration other than the one you've declared.
- Enter any Area of Study (major/minor) or Concentration offered at UVA in the Program Scenario area. You can also enter any course offered at UVA in the Course Scenario area to see how enrolling in that course would affect your Academic Requirements report.
